

NASPGHAN MASTER EDUCATOR AWARD

Description:

The NASPGHAN Education Excellence Award recognizes individuals who have made a significant and sustained contribution to the field of pediatric gastroenterology, hepatology and/or nutrition through education scholarship on a national or international basis.

Criteria:

Candidates must be a NASPGHAN member in good standing. Master educators should have dedicated their careers to education and education-related projects and have accomplished a body of work exemplifying dedication to educational pursuits. Most will have had careers spanning at least 10 years.

Nominees will be evaluated based on (Master educators should have contributed to at least 3 areas related to education):

1. Design, implementation and/or evaluation of educational innovations such as a new method, process, approach, or technological application that provides a solution to a problem in medical education (degree of innovation, breadth, quality, etc.)
2. Research activities in medical education (quality, quantity, funds received, etc.)
3. Teaching activities (quality, quantity, scholarly approach, etc.)
4. Mentorship and/or advisory activities (quality, quantity, scholarly approach, etc.)
5. Educational leadership and/or administration activities (national or international level)
6. Curriculum and/or program development activities (quality, quantity, scholarly approach, etc.)
7. Learner assessment and/or program evaluation activities (quality, quantity, scholarly approach, etc.)
8. Public dissemination of education scholarship, such as presentation at local, regional, national or international meetings
9. Scientific publications in medical education
10. Impact of the nominee's activities (national or international level)

Application Details

1. At least 2 nomination letters from members familiar with the nominee's body of work related to education. The nominee may solicit letters or the nomination may be completed without applicants' knowledge. We ask that this letter speak to the selection criteria, including a clear statement about the nominee's achievements in relation to at least one of the criteria above and why he or she is being recommended
2. Nominee's complete curriculum vitae

Selection

The NASPGHAN Education SIG will review the nominations and make recommendations to Executive board and council, who will make the final decision regarding recipients.

Presentation

The award will be presented at the NASPGHAN Annual Conference during the Awards Ceremony.

Past Recipients:

2018 – B Li, MD

2019 - Alan Leichtner, MD