NASPGHAN and the Council for Pediatric Nutrition Professionals (CPNP) are pleased to offer scholarships to attend the CPNP Nutrition Symposium on Friday, November 8 and Saturday, November 9 in Hollywood, FL. Supported by grants from Abbott, Fresenius Kabi, Kate Farms and Reckitt Mead Johnson, these scholarships are open to those who have an interest in advancing their career and involvement in pediatric nutrition. You must be a CPNP member with full membership to apply. Membership applications can be found on the website submission portal. You may submit a scholarship application with your membership application. Membership fees for new members will be waived, if accepted for the scholarship.

The scholarships are $500 each to help defray registration and travel costs to attend the meeting. You will need to register for the symposium. Interested CPNP member dietitians should submit an application form to the NASPGHAN National Office by following no later than August 9, 2024.

Highlights of this year's symposium include presentations by multidisciplinary experts on the topics of MASLD and Obesity, Pediatric Liver Transplantation Nutrition, and Baby-led Weaning

We are also excited to announce that several sessions (Ethics in Nutrition, PFD, ARFID and DGBI), held during the general NASPGHAN Annual Meeting, were approved for CPEUs as an added value to our members. The full program can be seen here.
